The Servant Song

*Affirmation of Faith – The Dash

Scott Meier

Leader: From the day that we were born to the day we breathe no more,

All: God is with us. Thanks be to God.

During days of childhood tears and wonder and as we learn and grow through all our days,
God seeks to shape our character. May it be so.

Through family, friends, and faith experience,
in darkness and light, work and love, playing and praying,
God's Spirit works to make us like Jesus. May it be so.

In all seasons, sorrows, and successes, in the dash of years from beginning to end,
God calls us to live the way of Jesus. With God's help, we answer the call.

-written by Rockford Johnson

*Response # 898

Amen

Amen, amen, amen.

(11:00) Sacrament of Holy Baptism

The altar flowers today are provided by the McFarlin Tulsa Endowment Fund in memory of Robert Boger McFarlin, (12/18/1891-7/28/1893), the only son of Mr. & Mrs. Robert M. McFarlin. In 1923-24, the McFarlins built this church as a memorial to their son. In keeping with the tradition that started when the church was completed, the flowers will be taken to the Norman IOOF cemetery following the services this morning and placed on the child's grave.
